Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Melmie Jibben has been working at Washington School for 18 years, and has been thought of as the most efficient secretary in Pierre by the Washington staff; and,

WHEREAS, Melmie's middle name is "a very hard worker", and she aptly earned this name by her handling newsletters, phone calls and all the Washington staff; and,

WHEREAS, Melmie knows each child and who belongs to who, and she always has the answer and knows what to do; and,

WHEREAS, Consideration, sincerity, and friendliness are qualities inside this wonderful person whose smile is warm and wide; and,

WHEREAS, Melmie never complains about tasks that need to be done, but handles them all and even has fun; and,

WHEREAS, The Washington staff, the students and their parents think she's great; and,

WHEREAS, At the end of the 1989-90 school year, Melmie will retire and plans to have some fun in the sun; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 22, 1990, as in South Dakota, and I join her friends, co-workers, and students in wishing her an enjoyable, and well-earned, retirement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
